

History & wildlife in the Manor House & Gardens at Lee

Some examples of the wildlife that may be seen in the Gardens

- Park Ranger's Office & Information
- Toilets
- Café & Refreshments
- The Ice House (Open first and third Sundays April - September or enquire at the Park Rangers' Office)
- Children's Play Area
- Flower Garden
- Ornamental Pond & Wildlife Habitat
- Tennis Courts
- Multi-Purpose Sports Pitch
- Entrance & Exit Points
- Dog Exercise Area
- Dog Free Areas

Grateful acknowledgement is made to the following sources for material used:
 Lewisham Local Studies & Archives Water colour of the Manor House 1884 by Copsey Fielding front cover, RSC Publications Guide to the Authorities of Britain © Richard Lewington 1978, Red Admiral, Gatekeeper, Small White, Painted Lady, by permission of the British Digital Association AA Book of the British Countryside © 1973, Kingfisher, Feral Pigeon, by permission of Midsummer Books AA Book of the British Countryside © 1973, Fox, Bumble Bee, Great Diving Beetle, Common Oak, Lime, Plane, Horse Chestnut, Cypress, Weeping Willow, Stag Beetle, London Borough of Lewisham, Diagrammatic map of Manor House Gardens, Migrant Hawker Dragonfly, Southern Hawker Dragonfly, Blue-tailed Damselfly, Common Reed, Willow Tit, Lesser Beechmoss, Mallard Duck, Cool, Moorhen, Canada Goose, Tufted Duck, Water-lilies, London 2000, Maypole Barney and Christopher Grey-Wilson Cassell's Wild Flowers of Britain and Northern Europe, Cassell's 2003, Common Mallow, Meadow Buttercup, Ox-eye Daisy, Milk Thistle to look after your Park Garden, copyright Dorling Kindersley, London 1993, Illustrations from The Kingfisher Field Guide to the Birds of Britain and Europe copyright © Alan Harris 1993, Reproduced by permission of Kingfisher Publications Plc, all rights reserved, Great Spotted Woodpecker, Wren, Great Tit, Lesser Rose-ringed Parakeet.